Excellent! Wonderfully well-written survey of and introduction to essential Spiritual Classics I would make a great textbook for a Spiritual Classics 101 Course. The author has given a brief summary of the major ideas and biographical highlights for each author. And remarkably, in just a few pages each, manages to convey a feeling for the authors' personalities and contributions to theology and philosophy! This is a book which I have already given as a gift and will certainly give again!

By UnityInDuality
Some people might say there is only one spiritual book worth reading and that book is the one that is the basis of their particular religion. I think there is good to be found in many religions. This book is like holding a religious library in your hand. Read this book and you will know the most important spiritual information from 50 spiritual books. What better leverage of your time can you get.

By Dr. jur. George Mentz JD MBA CWM (Author and Teacher)
Not only is this book a perfect reference guide to some of the world's greatest spiritual literature, but it clarifies and explains many complex ideas by various authors, sages, and gurus. If you like Tom's books, you will love the audios which also make for a great road trip. I also have read Tom's books on Prosperity and Self Help Classics and they are truly a must have for the library. Also, the author's summaries and ideas in the beginning of the books are wonderful and the references and bibliographies in the end are great to have if you are looking to buy the books that are reviewed. I just bought some of these books as graduation gifts to give away.

50 Spiritual Classics captures the diversity of life journeys that span centuries, continents, spiritual traditions and secular beliefs: from the historical The Book of Chuang Tzu to modern insight from the Kabbalah, from Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet to Eckhart Tolle's recent The Power of Now. The first and only bite-sized guide to the very best in spiritual writing, this one-of-a-kind collection includes personal memoirs and compelling biographies of such diverse figures as Gandhi, Malcolm X and Black Elk; Eastern philosophers and gurus including Krishnamurti, Yogananda, Chogyam Trungpa and Shunryu Suzuki; and Western saints and mystics such as St. Frances of Assisi, Hermann Hesse and Simone Weil. The last fifteen years have been a golden age in the genre of personal spiritual awakening, with names such as Eckhart Tolle, Neale Donald Walsch and James Redfield breathing new life into the literature. 50 Spiritual Classics showcases these newer works alongside traditional classics such as St Augustine's Confessions and Teresa of Avila's Interior Castle, and conveys the great variety of spiritual experience. In its commentaries of both the conventional classics as well as new writings destined to endure, 50 Spiritual Classics makes universal the human spiritual experience and will inspire spiritual seekers everywhere to begin their own adventure.

A kaleidoscope of inspiration ...insightful commentaries on each classic and biographical information on the authors. A unique overview of Spirituality.
