

50 Women Every Christian Should Know: Learning from Heroines of the Faith

Michelle DeRusha

ePub | *DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#11403 in Books Baker Pub Group/Baker Books 2014-09-16 2014-09-16 Original language: English PDF # 1
9.00 x .96 x 6.00, 1.20 #File Name: 0801015871384 pages 50 Women Every Christian Should Know
Learning from Heroines of the Faith | File size: 33.Mb

Michelle DeRusha : 50 Women Every Christian Should Know: Learning from Heroines of the Faith before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 50 Women Every Christian Should Know: Learning from Heroines of the Faith:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. 5 0 Women Every Christian Should Know By Kindle Customer This was a very inspiring book. How brave these women were. They listened to God's word and went out and did His work against all odds, and beautiful things happened because of that. We should all listen to the voice of God. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Some were unknowns to me and I enjoyed learning about them. By Jazziegirl There are 50 stories of women as the title suggests. Some were unknowns to me and I enjoyed learning about them. Other names were familiar but I learned new things about them. It could be used as a devotional. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Obedience honored. By Rocky's mom Wonderful collection of stories- ordinary women called by God to do extraordinary things. They furthered His kingdom through obedience, and He provided all they needed to do His work. This is definitely a faith-building book!

Throughout history, countless women have boldly stepped out in faith and courage, leaving their indelible mark on those around them and on the kingdom of God. In lively prose Michelle DeRusha tells their stories, bringing into focus fifty incredible heroines of the faith. From Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Avila, and Anne Hutchinson to Susanna Wesley, Harriet Tubman, and Corrie ten Boom, women both famous and admirable live again under DeRusha's expert pen. These engaging narratives are a potent reminder to readers that we are not alone, the battles we face today are not new, and God is always with us in the midst of the struggle.

From the Back Cover The inspiring stories of the women who helped to shape our faith Throughout history, countless women have boldly stepped out in faith and courage, leaving their indelible mark on those around them and on the kingdom of God. In lively prose Michelle DeRusha tells their stories, bringing into focus fifty incredible heroines of the faith. From Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Avila, and Anne Hutchinson to Susanna Wesley, Harriet Tubman, and Corrie ten Boom, these admirable women live again under DeRusha's expert pen. These engaging narratives are a potent reminder to us that we are not alone, the battles we face today are not new, and God is always with us in the midst of the struggle. "This book is rich in inspiration and information. Reading it opened my eyes, broadened my vision, and challenged my faith. I highly recommend it to both men and women!"--Warren W. Wiersbe, author and former pastor of the Moody Church, Chicago "Fifty women who teach us that famous isn't about how many people know your name and that brave often looks like pressing on even when you're afraid. My daughter and I are both indebted to Michelle for introducing us to many women we'd never met before and are sure never to forget."--Lisa-Jo Baker, community manager for (in)courage and author of Surprised by Motherhood "In the face of some of the same questions, temptations, and doubts we encounter today, these women were pioneers. Their stories give the church of today--men and women alike--a courageous and brave example of living faith and of living out faith, the evidence of things unseen."--Deidra Riggs, managing editor of The High Calling and founder of Jumping Tandem "In this thoroughly researched and well-written work, Michelle DeRusha invites us into the lives of fifty women whose stories are our stories. This book inspired me, challenged me, and made me feel so proud to be a woman who belongs to Jesus."--Jennifer Dukes Lee, author of Love Idol Michelle DeRusha writes a monthly column on religion and spirituality for the Lincoln Journal Star and is a regular contributor to The High Calling and other online journals. She also writes about faith in the everyday on her blog at www.michellederusha.com. She lives with her husband and their two boys in Nebraska. About the Author Michelle DeRusha writes a monthly column on religion and spirituality for the Lincoln Journal Star and is a regular contributor to Prodigal Magazine, The High Calling, and other online journals. She also writes about faith in the everyday on her blog at www.michellederusha.com. She lives with her husband and their two boys in Lincoln, Nebraska.