Jacob Katz : A House Divided: Orthodoxy and Schism in Nineteenth-Century Central European Jewry (The Tauber Institute Series for the Study of European Jewry) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A House Divided: Orthodoxy and Schism in Nineteenth-Century Central

European Jewry (The Tauber Institute Series for the Study of European Jewry):

Eminent social historian Jacob Katz examines the rise and transformation of Jewish communal leadership in Central Europe. It is a story of fragmentation and polarization that sheds light on the tensions within the 19th-century Jewish community in Central Europe as it struggled to respond to the promises and perils of modernization.

"As a historian, Katz is fully in charge controlling his sources, shaping them into meaningful patterns, and presenting them in such a way as to illuminate their larger significance." Commentary
