Milton C. Sernett : Abolition's Axe: Beriah Green, Oneida Institute, and the Black Freedom Struggle (New York State Study) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Abolition's Axe: Beriah Green, Oneida Institute, and the Black Freedom Struggle (New York State Study):

Chronicling the career of Beriah Green (1795-1874), theologian, educator, reformer, and one of New York's most important abolitionists, this book is the first published history of Green and his attempt to create a model biracial society.

"Milton Sernett captures the forceful image of Green and paints a very strong revealing portrait of a man of great 'moral intensity, ' a minister who had little inclination to pastor but a great burning need to instruct and reform those about him."About the AuthorMilton C. Sernett is professor of African American studies and history and adjunct professor of religion at Syracuse University. He is the author of Black Religion and American Evangelicalism and Bound for the Promised Land: African American Religion and the Great Migration.
