This is an excellent book that focuses on the causes of the war ...By jack brantThis is an excellent book that focuses on the causes of the war between Colonial New England and the Indians. The book has a very good analysis of the strategies of the Colonists and the Indians. in their conduct of the war. The aftermath of the war is also analyzed in depth.

KING PHILIP'S WAR is Ellis and Morris' renowned study of the Indian uprising that occurred after more than a half-century of peaceful co-existence with the English settlers. Metacomet, son of Massasoit of the Wampanoag tribe, led an uprising in 1675 that would later be known as King Philip's War.
