An example is The dandelion illustration. Measure thy life by loss " Measure thy life by loss and not by gain not by the wine drunk, but by the wine poured forth, For love's strength standeth in love's sacrifice And he who suffers most has most to give."4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Life ChangingBy D. HodsonMs. Trotter's parallels between nature and our Christian journey are so perfect that it left me with a deeper understanding of not only the things that I was experiencing but also how I should best respond to them. She gives a call to uncompromising faith and a poignant reminder of our call to the cross with depth that is not often expressed by modern authors. It can easily be read in one sitting, however it is most beneficial to slowly process her insightful writings. They are powerful. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars

By P. D. Wonderful book! Highly recommend

Isabella Lilius Trotter was an artist and a Christian missionary for over 38 years to the Muslims of Algeria. After serving God in England for a time with the YWCA, she went with her own funding to Algeria to serve God there. In 1888 she founded the Algiers Mission Band. In 1964 the Algiers Mission Band became incorporated into Arab World Ministries.
