It's the greatest book I've ever read three times and one of the few books that have transformed my life.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The book is a blessingBy Lucky guyPlaces Jesus squarely in the Wisdom tradition, which Dr. Bourgeault explains very well. She's a wonderful writer. Clear, deep, real, and persuasive. She is a great and original thinker, explainer, synthesizer and an inspiration. The book is a blessing on us.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Highly insightful and thought provoking in a meditative wayBy CharlieI got this as a gift for friends, and they love it. They find it to be highly insightful and it enriches their understanding of their Christian spiritual path.

If you put aside what you think you know about Jesus and approach the Gospels as though for the first time, something remarkable happens: Jesus emerges as a teacher of the transformation of consciousness. Cynthia Bourgeault is a masterful guide to Jesus's vision and to the traditional contemplative practices you can use to experience the heart of his teachings for yourself.

"There are few spiritual teachers who give us genuinely fresh insight, but even fewer who give us the tools so we can come to those insights for ourselves. Cynthia Bourgeault does both, and does them very well!"Richard Rohr, OFM, author of Everything Belongs: The Gift of Contemplative Prayer "A masterful work. Cynthia Bourgeault invites us to follow Jesus's path of self-emptying love, and she describes wisdom practices that we Christians can use every day to transform our own minds so that we too can see with the eyes of Christ."Jim Marion, author of Putting on the Mind of Christ "Bourgeault centers her expansive house of wisdom in the sayings and extraordinary death of the gospel Jesus as she turns light and darkness into a living poetry of self-emptying vision."Willis Barnstone, author of The Other Bible, coauthor of *The Gnostic Bible*About the AuthorCynthia Bourgeault, PhD, is an Episcopal priest, teacher, and retreat and conference leader. She is the author of several books, including Chanting the Psalms and Centering Prayer and Inner Awakening.
